Competency of	Penal Code Section 1368, 1369 & 1370. Under Penal Code section	$300 Flat Rate

Criminal Defendant	1368(a) “[i]f, during the pendency of an action and prior to judgment, a doubt arises in the mind of the judge as to the mental competence of the defendant,” the judge must inquire of defense counsel whether he or she believes that the defendant is competent. If defense counsel informs the court that he or she does have a doubt about the defendant’s competence, “the court shall order that the question of the defendant’s mental competence is to be determined in a hearing.” If, on the other hand, “counsel informs the court that he or she believes the defendant is mentally competent, the court may nevertheless order a hearing.” (Id. [emphasis added].)		Superior Court Fiscal Division 1035 Palm Street, Rm 385 San Luis Obispo, CA 93408
Probation Following Lewd Acts	Penal Code Section 288.1 The court, however, is not required to order a Penal Code section 288.1 report simply because a party requests it. (People v. Thompson (1989) 214 Cal.App.3d 1547, 1549.) In People v. Thompson , the Court of Appeal upheld the trial court’s refusal to order a Penal Code section 288.1 examination. The court in Thompson found that the defendant is not entitled to such an examination and the examination must be ordered “[o]nly if the trial court is inclined to grant probation.” (Ibid.) Thus, if the court “has no intention of granting probation, and the record supports such a denial of probation, a section 288.1 report is not mandated.” (Ibid.) Therefore, examinations are not required simply because they are requested by the defense. The fact that the reports are required only when the court is inclined to grant probation and the fact that the report is delivered to the court for the court to use in exercising its discretion support the arguments that reports ordered by the court are for the court’s own “use” and “needs.”	$300 Flat Rate	Superior Court Fiscal Division 1035 Palm Street, Rm 385 San Luis Obispo, CA 93408
Civil Commitment for 180 Days	Welfare & Institutions Code Section 5303.1 The court is not required to order an examination; however, the court may order an examination when a person who is subject to a civil commitment for 180 days requests a hearing or jury trial. As noted, Welfare and Institutions Code section 5303.1 states that for any hearing or jury trial, the judge “may appoint a psychiatrist or psychologist with forensic skills.” If the court does appoint an expert, that person must testify at the trial or hearing. (Ibid.) If the court does	$300 Flat Rate	Superior Court Fiscal Division 1035 Palm Street, Rm 385 San Luis Obispo, CA 93408 not appoint an expert, then the examining professionals who requested that the person be committed must testify at the trial or hearing unless their presence is waived. (Ibid.)

Narcotics Addict— Criminal	Welfare & Institutions Code Section 3051 The court is required to order an examination when a defendant has been convicted of a felony or had felony probation revoked and the judge believes that the defendant is addicted or may become addicted to narcotics. Welfare and Institutions Code section 3051 provides that the court must suspend proceedings and order the district attorney to file a petition for commitment “if it appears to the judge that the defendant may be addicted or by reason of repeated use of narcotics may be in imminent danger of becoming addicted to narcotics”	$300 Flat Rate	Superior Court Fiscal Division 1035 Palm Street, Rm 385 San Luis Obispo, CA 93408
Narcotics Addict— Civil	Welfare & Institutions Code Section 3102 The court is required to order an examination when the district attorney files a petition for someone’s civil commitment as a narcotics addict. As noted, Welfare and Institutions Code section 3102 provides that when the district attorney files a petition to have someone committed as a narcotics addict, “the court shall order the person sought to be committed to be examined by two physicians.” Welfare and Institutions Code section 3103.5 also requires the court to appoint two physicians to examine the defendant.	$300 Flat Rate	Superior Court Fiscal Division 1035 Palm Street, Rm 385 San Luis Obispo, CA 93408
